Data protection

Protecting your privacy is very important to Chubb European Group Limited ("Chubb"). Any information that you or your medical representative provides in the claim form and/or Doctor's Statement is "sensitive data" as defined by the Data Protection Acts of 1988 and 2003. Sensitive data includes any information about your physical and mental health. We require your consent before we can process this or any other such sensitive data that you may have already provided us with or may do so in the future.

In order to administer your claim, this information will be used by Chubb and its group companies. It may be held in computer and or in manual files for administration, and risk assessment purposes. We may disclose your personal data and sensitive data to, and may request information from other insurance companies and private investigators for underwriting, claims handling and fraud prevention purposes.

By returning this form, you consent to our processing your sensitive personal data for the above purposes. You also consent to our transferring your information to countries which do not provide the same level of data protection as Ireland, if necessary for the above purposes. If we do make such a transfer we will, if appropriate put a contract in place to ensure your information is protected. Guidelines for sharing of information in this regard are contained in a Code of Practice on Data Protection for the Insurance Sector which has been approved by the Data Protection Commissioner.

Where you have provided information about another person, you confirm that they have appointed you to act for them, to consent to the processing of their personal data, including sensitive data, to the transfer of their information abroad and to receive on their behalf any data protection notices.
